

Prof Math Noortmann

Math Noortmann joined the Centre for Trust, Peace and Social Relations (CTPSR) of Coventry University (CU) in November 2014 as their professor in Transnational Law and Non-State Actors. At CTPSR, he leads the Research Group on Transnational and Maritime Security. His interdisciplinary work includes publications on private military and security companies (2011;2016), transnational criminal organisations (2015), (counter) terrorism (2014) and non-governmental and intergovernmental organisations (2006;2014;2015). His recent projects include: (1) The Maritime Dimension of Transnational Organized Crime in Indonesia, (2) Countering the Threats of Illegal and unsustainable fishing, and (3) the Role and Position of Private Security Organisations in Transnational Security Governance.

Math is frequently invited as reviewer, editor, chair, speaker, convener and board member by universities, publishers, governmental and societal organisations.